

UPCOMING EXHIBITS

PHOTOGRAPHS BY ALEX SOTH

September 26 – October 26, 2008

University of Kentucky Art Museum, Lexington. 859/257-5716, www.uky.edu/ArtMuseum.

October 5 - February 1. Collecting for Kentucky: A Year of Art Acquisitions, 2007-2008.

Through generous gifts and astute purchases, the Museum has acquired a wide variety of great art that will be revealed for the first time on October 5, 2008 and feature the opening of Collecting for Kentucky. From formal to funky this exhibition contains artwork spanning several hundred years. Featuring pieces by world-renown artists, this exhibition is sure to be a treat for the eyes. The Speed Art Museum, Louisville. 502/634-2700.

PHOTOGRAPHS BY JEFFREY WOLIN

October 31 – December 7, 2008

University of Kentucky Art Museum, Lexington. 859/257-5716, www.uky.edu/ArtMuseum.

November 15-December 27. New Harmonies: Celebrating American Roots Music. This exhibit emphasizes the deep, rich heritage of music production in the United States and introduces visitors to the broad range of musical styles and traditions that explore and celebrate the nation's diversity. New Harmonies: Celebrating American Roots Music is a Museum on Main Street exhibition developed by the Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition Service and will be accompanied by lectures, musical performances and educational programming. Behringer-Crawford Museum. Covington. 859/491-4003 or www.bcmuseum.org.

November 15-January 4. Holiday Train Exhibit. Come celebrate the holiday season with the Behringer-Crawford Museum's Annual Holiday Train Exhibit! There are more trains, more tracks and more fun this year with an updated lay-out including interactive features! Behringer-Crawford Museum. Covington. 859/491-4003 or www.bcmuseum.org.

MUSEUM EVENTS

Sept. 19, 4:30-8 p.m. Rug Hooking Demonstration. Members of the Buffalo Trace Rug Hookers invite visitors to watch them at work and learn more about rug hooking. Free and open to the public. The Carnegie Center for Art and History, New Albany, Indiana. 812/944-7336 or www.carnegiecenter.org.

September 21, 4-7 p.m. Bluegrass at Sandy Bottom. Join Historic Paris-Bourbon County/Hopewell Museum for a picnic in the park, featuring bluegrass music, soft drinks, barbeque and outdoor fun. Come for the festivities at the renovated Hopewell Spring Park off Second Avenue, Paris KY. Cost free. For more information, call Hopewell Museum at 859/987-7274.

Sept. 25, 5-8 pm. Family Game Night. Families can enjoy a variety of board games and free pizza. Free, but reservations required. The Carnegie Center for Art and History, New Albany, Indiana. 812/944-7336 or www.carnegiecenter.org

September 26-27. Silhouette Artist Tim Arnold. Historic Riverview at Hobson Grove, Bowling Green. For further information, call 270/843-5565.

ART@NOON LECTURE: THE ART OF MATTHEW JOUETT

DATES: Wednesday, October 1

TIME: 12 noon

ADMISSION: FREE

CONTACT: 859.257.5716 / www.uky.edu/ArtMuseum

October 4, 1-3 p.m. Book Signing: "Lincoln's Table: A President's Culinary Journey from Cabin to Cosmopolitan." To celebrate the second edition release of "Lincoln's Table: A President's Culinary Journey from Cabin to Cosmopolitan," author Donna McCreary will be present to sign copies of her book, an entertaining combination of recipes and history, Lincoln's Table is more than a cookbook. It is a chronicle of Abraham Lincoln's life through the foods he ate, from the simple fare of the frontier to the most elaborate meals that befitted a President. Mary Todd Lincoln House, Lexington. Book signing free. $5 for self-guided tour. Contact 859/233-9999 for further information.

October 3-5. Antique Show and Sale. Historic Riverview at Hobson Grove, Bowling Green. For further information, call 270/843-5565.

Oct. 6, 10 am-2 pm "Hooked on Bridge" Party and Luncheon. Lunch by Terri Lynn's Catering by Design. Participants must bring their own partner. $15 per person, reservations required (call 502-713-3901). Sponsored by the Carnegie Center, Inc. The Carnegie Center for Art and History, New Albany, Indiana. 812/944-7336 or www.carnegiecenter.org.

MAY PHOTOGRAPHY LECTURE: ALEC SOTH

LOCATION: Worsham Theatre, UK Student Center

DATES: Friday, October 10

TIME: 4 pm

ADMISSION: FREE

CONTACT: 859.257.5716 / www.uky.edu/ArtMuseum

October 10-12. From the Ground Up: The Art of Building Dry Stone Walls with instructor Richard Tufnell, co-founder of the U.S. Dry Stone Conservancy, Inc. Presentations will focus on the history of this art, demonstrations, and hands-on repair of a stone wall on settlement school grounds. Suitable for those with little or no building experience as well as those with more advanced skills. Tufnell, an award-winning stone mason from Scotland, makes annual trips to the United States to work on special projects. For more information see www.pinemountainsettlementschool.com or contact Patrick Kennedy at the Heritage Council.

October 14, 11:30 a.m. – 1 p.m. Carnegie Center's "Senior Class" Brown Bag Lunch Program: Hooked Rugs Past and Present with Jyl Clark of Cat House Rugs. Jyl Clark will discuss the history of hooked rugs as an American craft and how that craft has developed into today's standards of the art form. Her presentation will include a demonstration and display and the opportunity for participants to try rug hooking too. Participants are asked to bring a brown bag lunch, with drinks provided. Pre-registration for each Senior Class program is required and can be done by contacting curator Karen Gillenwater at 812-944-7336 or kgillenwater@carnegiecenter.org. The Carnegie Center for Art and History, New Albany, Indiana. 812/944-7336 or www.carnegiecenter.org.

Nov. 1, 10-11 am Gallery Talk, "Art Rugs: The Art of Playing Cards." Presented by exhibit curator Linda Rae Coughlin. The Carnegie Center for Art and History, New Albany, Indiana. 812/944-7336 or www.carnegiecenter.org.

November 6. Tea with Mary Todd Lincoln. The former first lady comes to pay a call at Riverview and partakes of tea at 2 p.m. She will also visit on February 12. $18. Reservations are required. Historic Riverview at Hobson Grove, Bowling Green. For further information, call 270/843-5565.

November 7. Native American Education Day. In celebration of November as Native American Heritage Month, Wickliffe Mounds will present special demonstrations and museum exhibits of Native American Mississippian culture. Special rates to schools: $1 admission each. General admission to the public: $5 adults, $4 kids age 6-12. Wickliffe Mounds State Historic Site, Wickliffe. 270/335-3681.

November 18, 11:30 a.m. – 1 p.m. Carnegie Center's "Senior Class" Brown Bag Lunch Program: Behind the Scenes in the Carnegie Center Collection. What treasures lie in the basement of the Carnegie Center? Do you know that there is a hat possibly made by Mary Todd Lincoln, paintings by James L. Russell, and an Orange Crush bottle made in New Albany in 1920? Enjoy this opportunity to hear about highlights of the Carnegie Center's collection and tour our storage areas with curator Karen Gillenwater and collections volunteers Alice Bower, June Schneider, and Maryetta Marguet. Participants are asked to bring a brown bag lunch, with drinks provided. Pre-registration for each Senior Class program is required and can be done by contacting curator Karen Gillenwater at 812-944-7336 or kgillenwater@carnegiecenter.org. The Carnegie Center for Art and History, New Albany, Indiana. 812/944-7336 or www.carnegiecenter.org.